Jesus, Both Human and Divine

Luke 2:21-3:38

I love to tell the story of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory, of Jesus and His love;
I love to tell the story, because I know 'tis true,
It satisfies my longings as nothing else can do.

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory;
To tell the old, old story
of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story, more wonderful it seems
Than all the golden fancies of all our golden dreams;

I love to tell the story, it did so much for me,
And that is just the reason I tell it now to thee.

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory;
To tell the old, old story
of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story, 'tis pleasant to repeat,
What seems each time I tell it more wonderfully sweet;
I love to tell the story, for some have never heard,
The message of salvation from God's own holy Word.

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory;
To tell the old, old story
of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story; for those who knew it best,
Seem hungering and thirsting
to hear it, like the rest:
And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story that I have loved so long.

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory;
To tell the old, old story
of Jesus and His love.
