God is Holy

Lamplighters Women's Bible Study
February 12, 2020

If you can define it, it's not God.

Richard Rohr

There isn't any use for anyone to try to explain God's holiness...we can not understand holiness.

When we talk about the holiness of God, you have not only the problem of an intellectual grasp, but also a sense of personal vileness, which is almost too much to bear.

A.W.Tozer

Henry C. Thiessen: “God is holy means that He is absolutely separate from and exalted above all His creatures and creation, and He is entirely separate from all moral evil and sin.”

Harold L. Willmington: “God’s holiness is a single perfection that would perhaps come closer to describing the eternal Creator than any characteristic He possesses. It is the union of all other attributes, as pure white light is the union of all the colored rays of the spectrum.”

Elmer Towns: “Holiness is the first description that comes to our mind when we think of God and may be one of the most difficult attributes to completely understand and define. God is holy and apart from everything that is sinful. Sin is anything outside the nature of God.”

A.W. Tozer: “Holy is the way God is. To be holy He does not conform to a standard. He is that standard. Because He is holy, all His attributes are holy; that is, whatever we think of as belonging to God must be thought of as holy. God has made holiness the moral condition necessary to the health of His universe.”

R. C. Sproul: “God alone is holy in Himself. The word holy is used as a synonym for His deity and calls attention to all that God is. It reminds us that His love is holy love, His justice is holy justice, His mercy is holy mercy, His knowledge is holy knowledge, and His spirit is holy spirit.”
